

Information on how to apply for a study visa for Germany

All information provided in this leaflet is based on the state of knowledge of the German Embassy at the time of composition. No responsibility is taken for the completeness or correctness of this information.

If you intend to study in Germany, you have to apply for a student visa before entering Germany. Exceptions are applicable to students, who intend to study in Germany only for one semester as part of the Erasmus programme: Foreign students holding a Lithuanian residence permit while studying in Lithuania, who intend to study in Germany under a student exchange programme for not more than 360 days, do not require a German visa or residence permit if they have a certificate about the entry and residence for study purposes according to EU regulation 2016/801/EU, issued by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF). This certificate is issued upon request of the German university by the BAMF. Please contact your university for further information.

In principle, a decision about your visa application will be made in cooperation with the aliens' authority at your intended place of residence in Germany. Therefore, processing time usually takes about four weeks. The embassy highly recommends submitting your visa application as early as possible to avoid a delay of your entry into Germany. A visa application can be submitted up to three months prior to the intended date of entry. Processing time for Erasmus students is usually about a week.

An appointment can only be booked online. The visa fee is 75€ and can be paid in cash or by credit card. Visa applications will not be charged for stays financed by a public scholarship (Erasmus, DAAD etc.).

The following documents are requested:

General information:

- All foreign language documents (except passport) have to be accompanied by a translation into German.
- Scholarship programmes: If the amount of your scholarship is less than 934€/ months, you have to submit an additional proof of financial means by blocked account or letter of financial obligation issued by a German aliens' authority (amount = 934€ - scholarship amount x number of months of your stay).
- Health insurance: The mandatory health insurance in Germany covers you only once you have actually started to study in Germany. Therefore, together with your visa application you have to provide an additional travel health insurance for the validity of your visa. It is not sufficient to submit your Lithuanian health insurance card as this insurance does not cover all necessary services during a long-term stay.
- If you have to prove knowledge of German, you have to submit a language certificate issued by the Goethe Institut, ÖSD, telc language schools or TestDaF.
- Make sure to submit all requested documents. Incomplete applications may be refused upon submitting or after processing your application. The embassy may request additional documents upon submitting or while processing your application.
